Amenities: Torre del Falco is situated within walking distance of the centre of Ronciglione with its bars/restaurants and shops. Around 3km away in a peaceful setting surrounded by beech trees are the beaches of Lago di Vico.

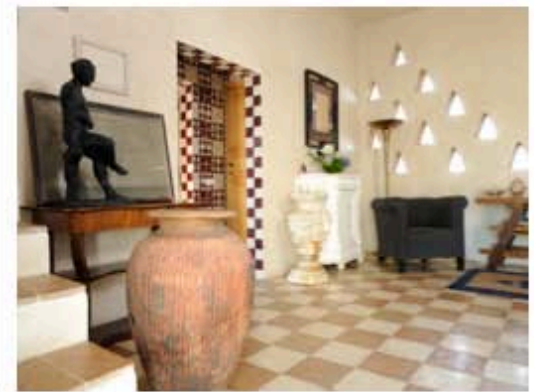

Torre del Falco is a re-imagined Bohemian refuge, which blends a modern contemporary aesthetic with a traditional and rustic ideal to create an unconventional environment that is simultaneously chic, serene and inspiring.

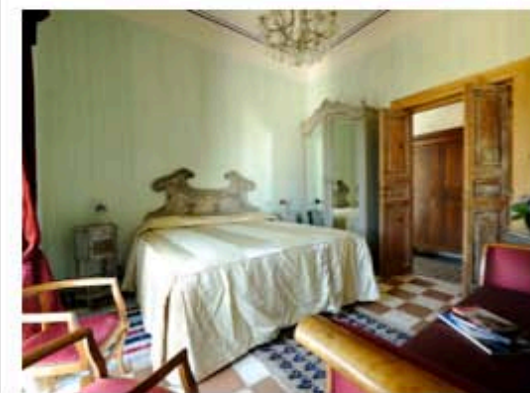

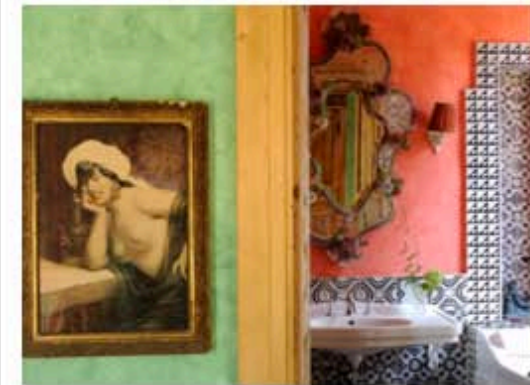

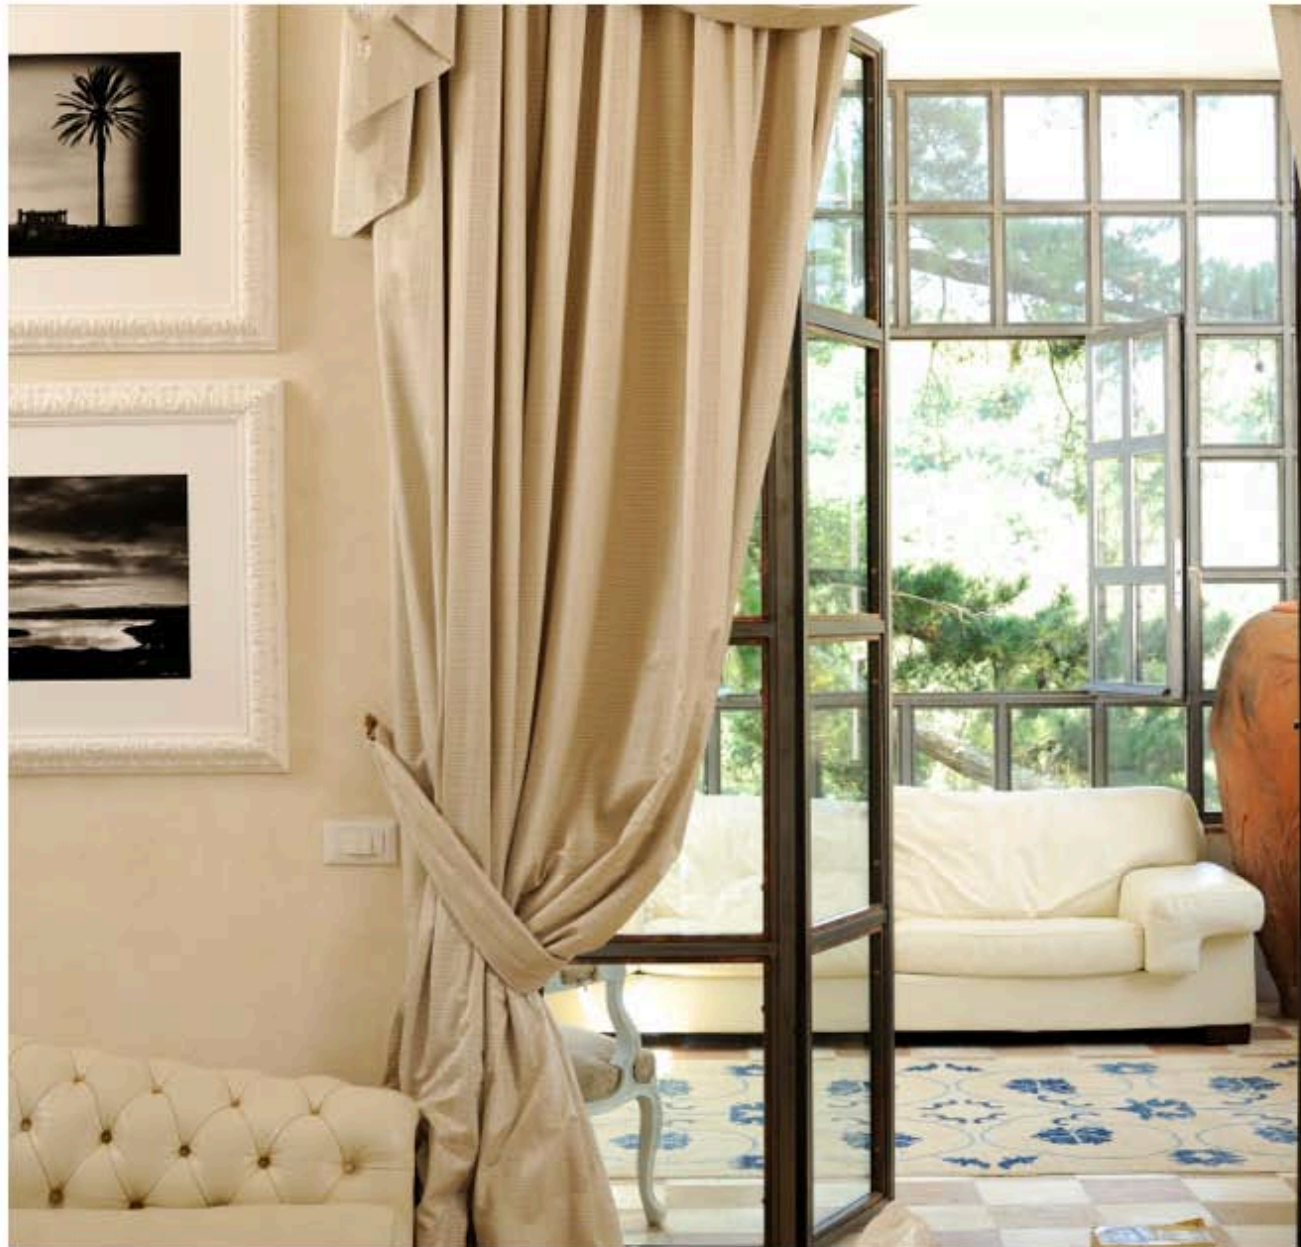

Close to the villa sits a 30m pool surrounded by a 13th century hand-chiselled marble patio from which, on a clear night, the shimmering lights of Rome can be seen. A few feet further on finds our guest within a rare 16th century Botanical garden. Vineyards, chestnut trees and a kiwi orchard co-exist with naturally set fountains and walking paths.
